DEC 20 DIE HARD (DRUNKEN CINEMA 19+)

Ho! Ho! Ho! Drunken Cinema is hosting a special "X-Mas" themed interactive movie game to celebrate the action-packed holiday cult classic, DIE HARD!

We will take you on a sleigh ride to Nakatomi Tower (A.K.A. The Broadway Theatre) to celebrate with John McClaine and Hans Gruber!

DEC 22 GREMLINS (A FREE FAMILY SCREENING BROUGHT TO YOU BY PROCIDO LLP!)

You should know the rules by now: Don't expose them to bright lights. Don't get them wet. And above all, don't feed them after midnight. So join Gizmo and all the monstrous Gremlins as they burst off the screen in the greatest small-town holiday adventure since It's a Wonderful Life! This bonanza or proliferating pests is the beloved result of the remarkable union between Joe Dante, writer Chris Columbus, and Steven Spielberg's Amblin Entertainment. Mixing Norman Rockwell sentimentality and anarchic vandalism, this Christmas-comedy classic both lights up and destroys everything you love about the holidays!

DEC 22 BRAZIL (SCI-FI SUNDAY)

Come out and celebrate the holidays Broadway-style (read: weirdly) with Terry Gilliam's irreverent dystopian masterpiece, BRAZIL! Surreal social satire and high-concept sci-fi cynicism plow through holiday season in what some have argued to be the best Christmas-set science fiction story set to film.

A bureaucrat in an Orwellian, retro-future world tries to correct an administrative error and in doing so becomes an enemy of the state. Orwell, Huxley, Kafka, and Eisenstein are all touchstones of this darkly humorous, wildly imaginative, satirical master-stroke of Terry Gilliam's career. Diving deep into the twisted recesses of his mind, Gilliam crafts one of the most haunting versions of the future ever put to screen. Featuring an all-star cast of Jonathon Pryce, Iam Holm, Michael Palin, Robert DeNiro, and Bob Hoskins, BRAZIL is the perfect storm of lunacy and social commentary.

DEC 22 EYES WIDE SHUT (A REQUISITE CINEMA 25TH ANNIVERSARY SCREENING)

In what would prove to be the coda to Stanley Kubrick's career, Eyes Wide Shut demanded an immersive level of commitment and trust from the director's stars - Tom Cruise and Nicole Kidman - during the film's grueling 15-month shoot. The two stars moved beyond their big screen charisma in order to inhabit their characters, peeling away at the psychological layers of trust and loyalty that protects the heart of a marriage. Dr. Bill Harford feels betrayed after his wife Alice confesses that she fantasized about having sex with another man, sending Bill into a dream-like excursion of sexual enticement and mystery, including masquerading into a secret society where sex is treated with a cult-like indulgence - putting himself and his marriage in danger. A film that Martin Scorsese called "misunderstood," Eyes Wide Shut creates a slow burn of discomfort that plays foil to the eroticism, sexual tension, and temptation that Kubrick explores.

DEC 26 MAGNOLIA (A REQUISITE CINEMA 25TH ANNIVERSARY SCREENING)

Written and directed by Paul Thomas Anderson and nominated for three Academy Awards, Magnolia is a cinematic Rubik's Cube of heightened realism and complexity, that ambitiously interweaves stories set in the San Fernando Valley - brought to life with an exceptional cast. Earl Patridge (Jason Robards) and Jimmy Gator (Philip Baker Hall) each carries with them a gnawing regret like the very cancer they are both fighting, while the majority of the rest of the cast deals with the scars inflicted upon them in their youth, as they head towards their own emotional unravelling.
