THE FOUR SEASONS: A FLAMENCO FILM

CANADA / 2024 / 60 mins.

Blossoms, burning sands freezing winds, snow: nature reconciles opposites in its relentless dance of the seasons. In this film, flamenco music and dance, not shy of extremes, sways freely with the four quarters of our planet's cycle around the sun. Original choreographies filmed in extraordinary locations to newly composed classical-flamenco fusion music take viewers on a journey through time and space. In the tradition of classical composers (like Vivaldi and Haydn) and the great Japanese poets, this cinematic exploration of our relationship to the mutations of the spinning earth, reconnects us to what is most essential. The seasons have an intense impact on the nature of our lives, our feelings, our energies both at individual and communal levels. Directed by Lina Kazan and Daniel Regnier, this roughly 60-minute music and dance film is a poetic dialogue with a whole year of nature's flux.

WE GROWN NOW

Dir: Minhal Baig / USA / 2024 / 93 mins. / Rotten Tomatoes Score: 93%

In 1992 Chicago, as Michael Jordan solidifies himself as a champion, a story of two young legends in their own right begins. As wide-eyed and imaginative best friends Malik and Eric traverse the city, looking to escape the mindaneness of school and the hardships of growing up in public housing, their unbreakable bond is challenged when tragedy shakes their community just as they are learning to fly.

THE INVISIBLE FIGHT BEGINS

Dir: Rainer Sarnet / Estonia / 2023 / 115 mins.

The year is 1973. Rafael is the sole survivor when Chinese kung fu assassins breach the border with the USSR. Convinced he's been spared for a reason - and that purpose is to learn kung fu - Rafael finds unlikely mentors in an Orthodox monastery where spiritual teachings are supplemented with kick ass chop sockey. It's true that Rainer Sarnet's films is very, very silly. But the mash up of Kaurismaki-an deadpan absurdism and Edgar Wright flash and tickle (bolstered by repeated strains of heavy metal) signals the arrival of a new cult curio and filmmaker of eye-popping panache.

SAILOR MOON SUPER SCANDELOUS:

THE YASSIFICATION OF THE CHRIST

Dir: Ryusuke Hamaguchi / JAPAN / 2023 / 106 mins. / Rotten Tomatoes Score: 93%

From the internationally claimed, Oscar-winning director of Drive My Car, Ryusuke Hamaguchi, comes this poetic, captivating, and haunting slow-burn drama about a proposed commercial development in an unspoiled region of Japan. Takumi and his daughter Hana live near a pristine forested area that has remained untouched by modernity. That is until a pair of agents come to Takumi's village to propose the building of a "glamping" site, a resort for wealthy urban vacationers. During the public presentation to the community, many critique the project, but the agents make it clear the decision is a foregone conclusion.

TAUTUKTAVUT (WHAT WE SEE)

Dir: Carol Kunnuk & Lucy Tulugarjuk / CANADA / 2023 / 88 mins.

Content Warning: This films contain mature content, including discussions relating to sexual abuse and domestic violence.

After experiencing a traumatic event in Igloodik (an Inuit hamlet in Foxe Basin, Qikiqtaaluk Region in Nunavut), Uyarak leaves her community and family in Nunavut to live in Montréal. When Covid-19 lockdowns close off the Canadian Arctic from the rest of the world, Uyarak is further separated from her closest friend, eldest sister, Saqqinak. This extreme situation blurs the lines of both the fictional lives of the sisters, and the non-fiction lives of the film's directors, Lucy Tulugarjuk and Carol Kunnuk, who play the sisters.
