NOV 15-24 SASKATOON FANTASTIC FILM FESTIVAL

The Saskatoon Fantastic Film Festival (SFFF), founded in 2009 (and previously known as the Dark Bridges Film Festival), contributes to Saskatoon's cultural landscape by presenting the best in international independent cinema through screening a wide gamut of award-winning contemporary films in a variety of categories, ranging from feature length narrative and documentary, to animation and short films.

Find more information at www.skfilmfest.com

NOV 16 SATURDAY MORNING CEREAL PARTY (SFFF 2024)

This 3-hour trip into the weird and wonderful world of animated antics will be accompanied by an all-you-can-eat buffet of cereal that is open throughout the show (and yes, there will be milk alternatives too!). The cartoon lineup is a complete secret (even to the festival team), but you'll see both favourites and obscurities spanning the 60s, 70s, and 80s, all punctuated with vintage commercials and PSAs! So, get ready for a sugar rush and an explosion of nostalgia and all wrapped up in one candy-coated package.

NOV 21 TASTES LIKE SYRUP - CANADIAN SHORT FILMS (SFFF 2024)

Seven fun and/or foreboding tales from the Great White North.

NOV 22 DRUNKEN CINEMA: DEMOLITION MAN 19+ (SFFF 2024)

Watch this 1993 film that is set in a "dystopian" USA, which has managed to be pretty dead-on with eerily accurate predictions about the future. Experience the mystery of the three sea shells, Wesley Snipes' "weird for even early 90s standards" hair and wardrobe and hoe Taco Bell will eventually take over the world with a great crowd in an amazing theatre!

* Customized game card and glowstick is included in the price of admission.

NOV 25 THE TEXAS CHAIN SAW MASSACRE 50TH ANNIVERSARY SCREENING

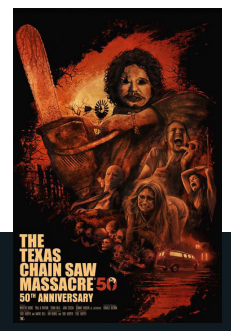

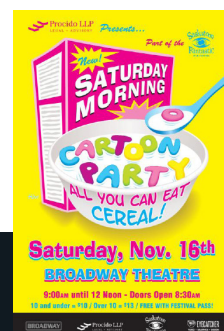

Celebrating its 50th year in all its grisly glory, THE TEXAS CHAINSAW MASSACRE remains a groundbreaking horror film that has left an indelible mark on the genre.

The film follows a group of young friends who, while traveling through rural Texas, stumble upon a dilapidated farmhouse inhabited by a terrifying family of cannibals, including the iconic character Leatherface, who wields a chainsaw as his weapon of choice.

TCM's raw, gritty aesthetic and documentary-style cinematography create an unsettling atmosphere that heightens the sense of dread. Its minimalistic plot is amplified by the intense performances of the cast, particularly Marilyn Burns as Sally Hardesty. The film's themes of isolation and the horrors of rural America resonate deeply, making it a cultural touchstone.

Despite its controversial release and initial backlash due to its graphic content, THE TEXAS CHAINSAW MASSACRE has been critically re-evaluated and is now considered one of the greatest horror films of all time.
